RNM advises Kwality Group on its exit of majority stake in Gaylord Restaurant, London

RNM Capital Advisors is pleased to announce that we acted as the sole financial advisors to Kwality Group, one of India's leading Restaurant and catering companies, for exiting majority ownership interest in Gaylord Restaurant, London to Azure Hospitality for an undisclosed sum.

Gaylord Restaurant, London is being replaced with two new openings. First up is the ground floor Pali Hill (named after an old Mumbai neighbourhood) with a menu of seasonally changing dishes. Downstairs will be Bandra Bhai - a cocktail bar that's modelled after an illicit smuggling den. The consummation of this deal showcases Team RNM's continued strength in closing cross border mid-market deals in a competitive Restaurant sector.

About Kwality Group:

Kwality Group is one of the oldest and leading catering companies of India. The Ethos of Kwality over the past 7 decades revolves around commitment, grace and the ability to infuse the innovative with the traditional. It introduced India to the delights of ice-cream, hotels and fine dining. From humble beginnings in a corner of Delhi's Connaught Place, where the original branch still stands, Kwality has spread not only across India but also beyond the borders of the country. Gaylord is an iconic north Indian cuisine restaurant in Central London with 53 years of heritage and was voted one of the top 5 Indian restaurants in Britain and was finalist in the last 5 British Curry Awards.

About Azure Hospitality:

Established in 2009, Azure Hospitality Pvt. Ltd. is a creative food company imagined by young people in order to make urban neighbourhoods more interesting. Co-founded by food and hospitality hyper focused entrepreneurs Kabir Suri and Rahul Khanna Azure's brands have been hand made to offer a mix of carefully curated food and beverage experiences that are accessible to all kinds of folks.
